

Halie Meyers is the Government Affairs Manager at RWE Renewables for the New York Bight, Community Offshore Wind. Halie works to ensure robust stakeholder engagement for the project. She has spent years shaping policy in New York working across the New York City Council, New York State Legislature and United States Congress.

Mostly recently, Halie was the Chief of Staff to NYS Senator Todd Kaminsky, where she helped to pass landmark legislation such as the Climate Leadership and Community Protection Act. Halie is a long-time resident of Long Beach, NY and saw first-hand the devastation of climate change after her family home was destroyed by Superstorm Sandy.
